Property and Area Description

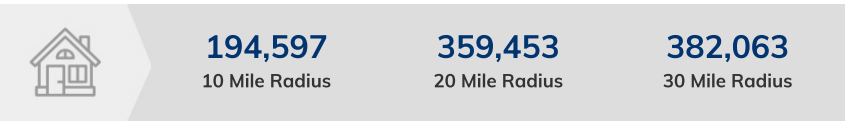

Strategically located at the bustling intersection of Fort Crook and Galvin Road with 19,645 VPD, this commercial property offers excellent visibility with prominent monument signage. Situated near the #1 Walmart in the state and with two high schools located nearby each with 1,500 students the site benefits from high traffic flow. Ample parking and easy accessibility make this location ideal for retailers, service providers, or office users looking to establish a strong presence in a high-demand area.
